

Virtual Listening Party Instructions

We hope you enjoy the virtual listening party. Get ready to start clicking on things. Using your mouse to click on things is how you can view or listen to media files on our website. There are a few things we want you to know to enhance your listening experience:

1. These are audio files with cool music and the spoken word. So, if you are at work you might want to use your headphones or plan to listen later in the privacy of your own home. Check your volume before you begin.
2. Go to Step 1. Enter the "The Listening Room" area to preview the audio CD. You will be taken to the web cast page where you can listen to the audio samples. Make sure the sound is turned up on your computer. Just double click the play button on each audio player on the screen to listen to two different snippets. Remember if you are at work, you may want to wear headphones for more privacy.
3. Go to the Step 2. Here is where you can purchase your copy of the audio CD conveniently and securely on the web. You can download the audio file right to your computer. Click the image and you will be taken to "The Greater Advantage Store". Just follow the simple point and click instructions on the "Store's" web page to get your copy. You will have to click "Back" on your web browser to return to the listening party.

\*Coming soon! Purchase a copy of the CD and receive it by mail!***

4. Go to the Step 3 box. Click on the Big Pen. You will be taken to another page on our website where you will find our guestbook. Simply click on "sign our guestbook". Once there, you can type in your name, email address, and provide comments about your listening experience. You will need to click the "listening party" tab to come back.
5. Above all, enjoy putting a little motivation into your day!!!
